

Tutor Training Conference

Saturday, September 29, 2007

Presented By: Cabrini Connections,
Cabrini Green Tutoring Program and Chicago Lights

Who? All tutors participating in Cabrini Green Tutoring Program, Inc., Chicago Lights and Cabrini Connections.

Why? Our goal is to effectively train our volunteer tutors with a variety of workshops relevant to one-on-one tutoring/mentoring of students in grades 1-12.

How? Multiple workshops presented by well-qualified leaders.

Topics include:

- Making the Most of the Tutoring Session
- Reading Recovery Grades 1-6
- Reading Recovery High School
- Math Recovery Grades 1-8
- Math Recovery High School
- A Look into the Neighborhood of Cabrini Green
- Engaging Young Readers
- Overcoming Obstacles: Strategies for Positively Connecting with Students
- Writing with Young Children: A Path to Literacy and Academic Success
- Making Reading Fun by Writing Poetry
- College Access: A How To for High School Students

When? Saturday, September 29, 2007.
9am - 2:30pm. Registration begins at 8:15am.
Half day and partial attendance is available to those with scheduling conflicts.
Breakfast and lunch will be provided.

Where? Fourth Presbyterian Church, 126 E. Chestnut St. Chicago, IL.

Questions? Contact Alex Cornwell @ 312-981-3565 or acornwell@fourthchurch.org

More Information to follow via E-vite, e-mail and mail.